BEGIN YOUR UNIVERSITY EXPERIENCE IN TEXAS

Denton offers the best of both worlds; a charming small, college town (population 122,000) and access to the Dallas-Fort Worth metropolitan area (known locally as the Metroplex with a population of 6.5 million). Denton's downtown square combines an active art and live music scene with a hometown feel. While having many shops and restaurants to explore. Dallas-Fort Worth (DFW) International Airport is the United States' 4th busiest airport and offers daily non-stop service to China, Korea, United Arab Emirates, Brazil and other destinations across Asia, South America and the Middle East. DFW also offers convenient access to all major North American cities.

University of North Texas' Spirit and traditions

Green & White

One of the earliest official references to UNT's school colors of green and white appears in the 1907 Yucca yearbook, although a former student recalled that they were selected in 1902-03 when someone suggested Mother Nature would be kind to those using her colors. Today, green is a way of life at UNT, where their sustainability programs and environmental research have brought them national recognition.

We Mean Green!

Eagle Claw

The Eagle hand sign is UNT's universal sign of pride and unity. To display your pride:

- 1 Hold up your hand.
- 2 Make a "V" for Victory using your pointer and middle fingers.
- 3 Extend your thumb and curl your fingers slightly toward your palm.

Scrappy, the Eagle Mascot

The student body chose the Eagle as their mascot in 1922 for its keen eye, strength, independence and loyalty. In 1950, students named the first live bird mascot "Scrappy," which later became the name of the human mascot. The Eagle was known by other names through the years, including "Eppy" in the 1980s. But in 1995, the modern-day Scrappy returned to the nest as the Mean Green's biggest fan.

Mean Green

Nickname

UNT's unique Mean Green nickname originated in the 1960s as fans cheered on the football team and its punishing defense. The earliest newspaper references to the Mean Green appeared in the spring of 1967. One of the original Mean Green players went on to a Hall of Fame career in the NFL with a nickname of his own, "Mean" Joe Greene. The dominating lineman became the cornerstone of the Pittsburgh Steelers' "Steel Curtain" defense and a four-time Super Bowl champion. Today, all of UNT's athletics teams are known as the Mean Green.

'Lucky', the Albino Squirrel

Campus legend says the rare, furry white animal is a good luck charm of mythical proportion.

Alumni

UNT has a vast alumni network with more than 137,000 of them living in the Dallas-Fort Worth area.

Notable alumni include:

Dr. Phil

Actors: Peter Weller and Thomas Haden Church

Foreign Minister of Saudi Arabia, Adel al-Jubeir

Former Prime Minister of Jordan, Taher al-Masri

Grammy Award-winners:

Don Henley, Roy Orbison, and Norah Jones

Academy of Country Music-winners:

Eli Young Band

Lighting of McConnell Tower

Green lights, first installed by the Talons in the 1970s, shine on McConnell Tower after athletic victories and for special occasions. After evening home football victories, the Talons lead the march from Apogee Stadium to the Hurley Administration Building where they turn on the tower's green lights to signal the win to the campus and community. LED lights installed in 2014 make UNT's green light shine bright.

Declaring a field of study at a U.S. college or university

ONCAMPUS Texas provides the support and guidance to help you explore different fields of study and career paths. While you are free to choose the area of study you wish to focus on (this is referred to in the U.S. as your “major”), you will also be required to complete a number of general education courses which will help you learn how to think critically, research properly, and communicate effectively. At most U.S. schools you can complete up to two years of study before you need to declare your major.

Optional Practical Training (OPT)

OPT enables you to work in the U.S. and gain valuable work experience before returning home. For international students who graduate from a STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics) related program, OPT is a 36-month program.

- Once you meet all conditions of acceptance, a draft Acceptance Letter will be issued within two working days.
- Review the draft Acceptance Letter to make sure all information is correct and accurate and confirm the shipping address and recipient to which the original of the I-20 document should be sent.
- Once any amendments to the Acceptance Letter have been sent to the CEG Admissions team, or the Acceptance Letter is confirmed accurate with them, you will be emailed an electronic copy of the I-20 within one week, which will be followed by the original document in the mail.

F-1 Student Visa Application

- Once you have received an electronic copy of your I-20, book a visa appointment at your local U.S. Embassy and collect all of the required documents.
- Follow the instructions for your local U.S. Embassy website to start your visa application.
- Students should ensure that they are prepared to answer questions relating to their chosen study program in the USA, their own educational background, their career intentions, and their reason(s) for choosing this particular course of study.

Arrival at ONCAMPUS Texas

- A pre-arrival handbook, which includes important information for your course of study, and medical forms, will be sent along with the electronic copy of the I-20, and will help prepare students for their arrival in Texas.
- Students will receive a link to an online housing application that must be completed and returned to the Student Support Advisor.
- Students must provide arrival details to Admissions and should arrive by the day before the program start date.
- The first few days of the program are dedicated to an orientation delivered by both the ONCAMPUS Texas and UNT.

Preparing for your student visa interview

Should your application be successful and you are admitted to our program, your next step will be to apply for a student visa. As part of your visa application process, you will likely have to attend an in-person visa interview. Below are some tips on how to prepare for this.

Please note: We cannot guarantee a successful outcome to your visa interview. These points are only meant to advise you on what you can expect during your visa interview.

- Do attend: Failure to attend the interview may result in automatic refusal of your application.

Do answer: Always answer all questions fully and honestly.

Do think: Think in advance about your program, the documents you provided in your visa application, and your intended course of study. The Visa Official wants to know that you have given your course of study serious thought before choosing it.

Do speak English: The Visa Official will likely check your level of English, so always answer in English, not via an interpreter. Practice answers to potential questions, and be prepared for them.

Do ask: Ask for clarification if you do not understand a question, to make sure you are providing the information they want.

Documents to bring: Check the documents required by your specific embassy at: www.usembassy.gov

In general, students are asked to provide the following documentation:

 - 1 Original I-20
 - 2 Proof of payment of SEVIS fee
 - 3 Completed DS-160 form (non-immigrant visa application)
 - 4 Acceptance letter
 - 5 Passport
 - 6 Academic transcripts (with translations)
 - 7 Financial evidence used for the I-20
 - 8 Passport-sized photograph
- Here are tips for some of the types of questions you may be asked:

Question type: General Information about you, your education, your choice to study in the U.S.

Tip: Show that you are a genuine student looking to further your education.

Make it clear that you plan to return to your home country after graduation. Give reasons for returning that are stronger than your reasons for remaining in the USA..

Question type: Intended Course: what you plan to study at ONCAMPUS Texas, course dates, and program details.

Tip: Become familiar with the information on our website and/or brochure.

Bring a brochure with you to show the visa official.

Explain why you want to attend your particular program for study. If the consulate official believes you want to remain in the USA after your program, you may not receive a visa.

Explain how studying in the USA relates to your future professional career in your home country.

Question type: Financial circumstances: Who will be paying for your course? What are the fees?

Tip: Bring all required financial documents and anything else you may have that helps support your financial status.

If you have been awarded a scholarship, bring a certificate or proof of your award.

Question type: Living in the U.S.: Where the school is located, and housing.

Tip: Bring your housing confirmation.

Learn about our location and clearly describe where the school is located within Texas.
