STEP 3

Book your appointment

Make sure you allow enough time before your departure date to schedule an appointment to have your application reviewed.

Check on the average appointment wait times to ensure that you are able to submit your application three months to two weeks prior to your departure date for a long stay visa.

STEP 4

Submit your file

You must attend your appointment with all the required documents. Also bring a copy of each document, including the passport and its ID pages. The service provider (or consulate) will receive you, review your application, collect the visa fee, capture your biometric data (photo and fingerprints) and retain your passport and the copies of all your supporting documents in order to forward them to the consulate.

The visa application submission will take approximately 20 minutes at the visa centre.

STEP 5

Fees

STEP 6

Biometrics

Table of fees

Any visa applicant aged 12 or older must submit his or her visa application in person. The following biometric data will be required: a photo (scanned or taken during your appointment), and ten individually taken fingerprints.

If you hold a biometric Schengen visa issued within 59 months, either bearing the mention 'VIS' or issued after March 2016, your previous biometric data can be re used.

Track your application

In most cases, you can track the progress of your application. For details, go to our track the progress of your application page. You will be notified when your passport is ready for collection from the visa centre where you applied.

In some instances, the passport can be sent by postal services.

STEP 7

Travel to France once your visa is granted

STEP 8

Have your VLS-TS visa validated after arrival in France

As soon as you arrive in France, you must validate your visa as soon as possible within the first 3 months.
