Conditions of Enrollment

1 Important
Please read these conditions carefully as they shall form part of the contract between the person responsible for the fees and University of Rochester ONCAMPUS. It is important that you make sure that you have read and understood all of these conditions as you will be deemed to accept these conditions when you sign the application form.

2 Application
If you are successful in your application you will receive a joint offer letter from University of Rochester ONCAMPUS and the collaborating institution outlining the proposed course of study and detailing the tuition fees and the deposit that will be required to guarantee your place at University of Rochester ONCAMPUS.

3 Tuition fee deposit payment
To accept your offer you or your sponsor will be required to pay the indicated deposit and registration fee on your offer letter. This deposit will be set against the tuition fees of the final term of your program, and shall constitute no less than the equivalent of one term’s tuition fees.

Depending on your country of residence it might be in your interest to pay a higher deposit than the minimum amount stated on the offer letter. Please contact us if you are unsure about whether this applies to you.

Refunds on the deposit paid will be in accordance with the Refund Policy, as outlined in section 8.

4 Acceptance of your place
Once your minimum tuition fee deposit has been received and upon your meeting all the conditions in your offer letter and our receipt of your deposit, we will confirm your place on the Program and send you the official acceptance letter and i-20 form necessary to obtain your student visa. ONCAMPUS reserves the right to levy a charge for the issuing of replacement i20 letters.

5 Payment of fees
All fees will be payable in advance as determined by University of Rochester ONCAMPUS. Fees are correct at time of publication. University of Rochester ONCAMPUS reserves the right to vary tuition fees at any time and payment of each term’s tuition fees will be subject to any increase in fees that may be announced during the program of study.

All student accounts must be settled in advance of the start of that term’s studies. You will not be permitted to commence or continue your course at the beginning of any term until all outstanding fees, charges or accounts are paid.

Any payments that are not made by the due date will incur a late payment penalty to be determined and communicated in advance of your program of study by University of Rochester ONCAMPUS. Should it be necessary for you to repeat a module, you will be required to pay the full module fee.

6 Academic conditions of entry and continued enrollment
Students are admitted to University of Rochester ONCAMPUS programs on the basis of English language and academic ability and, in some cases, on the additional basis of experiential learning.

Any student found to have misled University of Rochester ONCAMPUS as to their qualifications and suitability for entry will be subject to expulsion from University of Rochester ONCAMPUS without recourse to refund of tuition fees already paid. Should an alternative program be more suitable, a student may be counseled on to such a program, however this may also require changes to their visa status which may need to be communicated to the U.S. immigration authorities.

Students are expected to attend all classes and lectures, and will be subject to assessment by means of coursework and other continuous assessment methods and by examination. In order to progress through the program of study and to subsequent courses offered by the collaborating institution students are required to meet prescribed academic and English language standards.
7 Visa Compliance
It is your responsibility prior to enrollment at the college that you have and maintain the correct visa status demonstrated in your passport. The center will check this at least every 12 months. On application to the center you will be required to provide details of any previous visas received or refused for entry to the United States of America, together with information about the level and content of any prior studies undertaken in the USA, as this is an immigration requirement before we can sponsor any student.

Attendance is monitored by overall percentage and by ‘Contact Points’ in accordance with University of Rochester ONCAMPUS Attendance Policy. Students are required to maintain appropriate levels of attendance and may be expelled should this fall below the required level and they are withdrawn from their studies.

University of Rochester ONCAMPUS reserves the right to impose sanctions including, but not limited to, termination of the enrollment of any student whose standard of conduct is unsatisfactory. There will be no refund of tuition fees in cases of expulsion.

8 Refund policy
Acceptance of a University of Rochester ONCAMPUS offer on payment of the minimum stated deposit constitutes a binding contract between the student and University of Rochester ONCAMPUS.

Tuition fees are non-refundable except in the case of visa-refusal. Should a student be refused a visa, evidence of refusal and a written application to withdraw must be made available to University of Rochester ONCAMPUS before any refund can be initiated.

University of Rochester ONCAMPUS will verify the authenticity of the evidence of visa refusal with the appropriate U.S. overseas posting (Embassy/High Commission), and will charge an administration fee of $100 in the event of such a refund.

Tuition fees are non-refundable after the start of studies. Any notice to withdraw or cancel must be made in writing. If the cancellation is received before the start of term then the forthcoming term’s tuition fees will be charged. If the cancellation is made after the start of term then both the current term and the following term’s tuition fees will be charged.

Any students withdrawing from a University of Rochester ONCAMPUS program of study may be reported to the U.S. immigration authorities and U.S. Embassy/High Commission in their home country as a curtailment of their program. Any student withdrawing may be required to provide documentary evidence of their return to their home country or transfer to another institution.
