Yosef M. Alshekes, Kuwaiti | Progressed to: BEng (Hons) Mechanical Engineering | University of Sunderland

“...I heard a lot about the UK and the quality of its education so decided I wanted to study here. The teachers at ONCAMPUS were very helpful and welcoming and they taught me how to study more independently, and I understand the importance of time management, research and report writing. I learned a lot from the mix of cultures and can now even write my name in Chinese! Sunderland has some good places to spend your free time, like the bowling alley, football pitch and cinema, but if I want to go to a bigger city centre I can travel to Newcastle very easily.”
