

Birkbeck, University of London

Birkbeck is a world-class research and teaching institution, a vibrant centre of academic excellence and London's only specialist provider of evening higher education with classes delivered between 6pm – 9pm allowing you time to work, study, volunteer or just spend your time doing whatever you'd like.

The College is situated in the heart of the University of London's central campus, next to many other University of London Colleges, including UCL and SOAS. The central location is only minutes' walk from the British Museum and other famous London attractions.

Birkbeck is internationally recognised for excellence in the following subject areas:

Business, Economics and Informatics

Social Science, History and Philosophy

Science

Law

Arts

Birkbeck classes are arranged to best accommodate a working schedule, maximising the opportunity for high-quality daytime work and internships with classes delivered in the evening.

“

Our teachers all have their own approach and everyone is there to help you with your studies. I feel like I have developed a lot of useful skills and knowledge in business. I've met a lot of friends from around the world. Lessons involve lots of interesting tasks such as group tasks where we have to share our opinions with other students.”
