

IIT Terms and Conditions

1. Important

Please read these conditions carefully as they shall form part of the contract between you (and if you are under 18), the person responsible for the fees ("your sponsor") and CEG Pathways Inc. ("CEG"). It is important that you make sure that you have read and understood all of these conditions as you will be deemed to accept these conditions when you (or your sponsor) sign the application form.

2. Application

These terms have been sent to you as part of the application process and set out important information detailing the tuition, fees and the deposit payable, that will be required to guarantee your place at CEG.

3. Deposit payment

To accept your offer, you or your sponsor will be required to pay the deposit and registration fee stated on your offer letter, such amount to be paid to CEG by no later than when you accept your offer. Acceptance of a CEG offer, on receipt of your acceptance and payment of your deposit and registration fee, constitutes a binding contract between the student (and/or your sponsor) and CEG.

You should only pay us, CEG, the registration fee and deposit. All other payments should be made to Illinois Tech.

The registration fee is non-refundable.

The deposit may become non-refundable in whole or part depending on the circumstances as applied against the refund policy set out below.

If, in error, you pay CEG any fees other than the deposit and registration fee, such as tuition, accommodation or any other fees, those fees will be passed to Illinois Tech by us and we will notify you accordingly.

4. Acceptance of your place

Once your required deposit and registration fee is paid to CEG and upon you meeting all the conditions in your offer letter, we will confirm your place on the Program and send you the official acceptance letter and i20 form necessary to obtain your student visa. You will need to be careful with this letter as Illinois Tech may levy a charge for the issuing of any replacement i20 letter.

5. Payment of fees

Tuition and Accommodation

You must pay all tuition and accommodation fees promptly on receipt of the invoice from Illinois Tech, directly to Illinois Tech, using the methods explained in this link: <https://web.iit.edu/student-accounting/payments/payment-methods>

Under Illinois Tech's terms, any student who fails to settle all outstanding balances once invoiced may not be able to join us and/or continue to Illinois Tech; participate in student activities, including athletics; utilize campus facilities, such as the Fitness Centre; obtain transcript services; receive grade reports; or receive a degree.

A copy of Illinois Tech's tuition fee refund policy can be located at this link: <https://www.iit.edu/student-accounting/payments/payment-policy/credits-and-refunds>

6. Academic conditions of entry and continued enrolment

Students are admitted to CEG programs on the basis of English language proficiency and academic ability, and in some cases, on the additional basis of experiential learning.

Any student found to have misled CEG as to their qualifications and suitability for entry could be subject to expulsion from CEG without recourse to refund of tuition and other fees already paid and be liable for any required withdrawal notice periods. However, in limited circumstances, should an alternative program be more suitable and if appropriate, a student may be transferred to an alternative program, however this may also require changes to your visa status which may need to be communicated and subject to any conditions of the U.S. immigration authorities.

Students are expected to attend all classes and lectures, and will be subject to assessment by means of coursework and other continuous assessment methods and by examination. In order to progress through your program of study and to subsequent courses offered by the collaborating institution, students are required to meet prescribed academic and English language standards at certain stages.

Students at Illinois Tech are expected to abide to the full rules and regulations in the University handbook: View handbook

7. Visa Compliance and Conduct

Prior to enrolment at Illinois Tech, it is your responsibility to ensure you have a correct and valid visa document stamped in your passport. On application to CEG you will be required to provide details of any previous visas received or refusals of entry to the United States of America, together with information about the level and content of any prior studies undertaken in the USA, being an immigration requirement.

Attendance is monitored by using an overall percentage and by 'Contact Points' and students are required to maintain appropriate levels of attendance and engagement and may be ultimately subject to expulsion, should these fall below an acceptable level.

CEG reserves the right to impose sanctions including, but not limited to, termination of the enrolment of any student whose standard of conduct is unsatisfactory. There will be no refund of the registration fee or the deposit in cases of expulsion due to misconduct. Any tuition fee refunds are subject to Illinois Tech's refund policy.

Any students withdrawing from a CEG program of study may be reported to the U.S. immigration authorities and U.S. Embassy/High Commission in their home country as a curtailment of their program. Any student withdrawing will be required to provide documentary evidence of their return to their home country or transfer to another institution.

8. CEG Refund policy

The registration fee is non-refundable.

The deposit is non-refundable except:

where the student withdraws from their course prior to the 'drop-end date' as set by Illinois Tech; or in the case of visa refusal or CEG/Illinois Tech withdrawing a program of study.

Should you be refused a visa, evidence of refusal and a written application to withdraw must be made available to CEG before any refund can be initiated, if appropriate.

CEG will verify the authenticity of the evidence of visa refusal with the appropriate U.S. overseas posting (Embassy/High Commission), and will charge an administration fee of $350 in the event a refund is made.

The deposit is non-refundable after the drop-end date for your studies. Any notice to cancel or withdraw must be made in writing.

Tuition fees (but not the registration fee or deposit) are subject to Illinois Tech's refund policy.

CEG/ Illinois Tech reserves the right to withdraw a previously available program of study at its own discretion. In such a scenario and where a student is unable to enrol in a similar program with Illinois Tech, the deposit will be refunded by CEG and you should contact Illinois Tech in relation to any tuition or other fees you have (or should have) paid to Illinois Tech.

9. Illinois Tech Refund policy

Illinois Tech has its own refund policy for refunds on tuition, housing and meals and any other student fees, which you can find at the below link. This refund policy will apply only to any payments that have been paid directly (or were due) to Illinois Tech: Visit link

10. Cause for concern

Should we have reason to be concerned for the health, welfare, financial situation, fitness to study, or academic progress of any student, whether under or over 18 years of age, CEG reserves the right to refer you to Illinois Tech's support services or contact Illinois Tech directly to offer support.

11. Deferment

Holders of a CEG offer may be able to, on written request to CEG, defer the start of their program of study up to a maximum of one academic year.

If you do defer your start date, any deposit paid to CEG will be held (without penalty), for use against the subsequent deferred course of study. Should you (the offer holder), subsequently withdraw after a deferment has been applied, the deposit held will be non-refundable.

As an immigration requirement, the U.S. immigration authorities will be informed of any students holding an i20 visa letter and wishing to defer.

12. Data protection

To comply with the U.S. Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA), the information which you give on your form will be used for the following purposes:

- To determine your eligibility for entry to CEG and/or entry to the host partner university.
- To enable CEG and the host partner university to compile statistical reports.
- To enable CEG and the host partner university to initiate your student record.
- To share information with other government departments (e.g. immigration office), local authorities and other bodies to prevent possible fraud and to enable them to carry out their functions. On enrolment, students will be asked to sign a consent form for specific use of their personal data.

To protect the personal data of individuals normally resident in the EU, CEG will comply with General Data Protection Regulations and the UK Data Protection Act 2018. For further information on how your personal data is processed, see the Privacy Notice

13. Liability

Any reference in these terms to liability of the student shall also infer liability on the parents, guardian or sponsor of the student and such liability is joint and several.

14. Variation of Conditions

CEG may, by written notice, vary conditions of enrolment as may be necessary to comply with any law, regulations or amendment thereof, of the Government of the United States or the State of Illinois (as applicable). CEG additionally reserves the right, upon giving one semester's written notice of such change to all affected students, parents, guardians and sponsors, to make any addition, amendment or alteration to these conditions as is deemed necessary by CEG or as required by Illinois Tech.

15. Marketing

By enrolling in a CEG program you consent to your participation in future marketing activities. Contact us (details set out below), if you do not wish to participate.

16. Law and Jurisdiction

These terms and conditions are governed by the laws of the state of Illinois, and their courts shall have exclusive jurisdiction.
