“I had heard that Sunderland’s courses in Pharmacy were really good, and having compared them to others I decided Sunderland was better as it was affordable and it would take less time to graduate. When I arrived in January it was cold! But I liked it a lot; it was green and natural and I found it easy to settle in. My teachers were really nice; they made sure every student understood what was being taught. I had 7-8 students in my class and the teacher gave us group work to discuss between each other, presentations and seminars, which was a beneficial way to learn as we have to research by ourselves. My English is much better than before I started the programme. I enjoy the University gym and used the library a lot, which is open 24 hours a day.”

(The Guardian University Guide 2015)
Sunderland Business School is a member of the Chartered Association of Business Schools, which has gained recognition in a number of league tables. Students advise real clients as part of Sunderland’s Student Law Clinic

“1 chose to study Law in the UK because it offered a faster process – three years in the UK compared to other countries where it can be double that. I chose Sunderland because it gave more advantages – the cost of living is low and the environment is conducive to learning. It’s not a big city so I can focus more without getting distracted. My teachers were very helpful, they kept asking if I had any difficulties and about my well-being, so I felt very at home with them. The teaching style is very different, there was more self-study. We had lots of discussion in class and were encouraged to communicate. My class was pretty mixed with different nationalities so I learnt about lots of other countries and beliefs, values and cultures, which was very interesting.”

I heard a lot about the UK and the quality of its education so decided I wanted to study here. The teachers at ONCAMPUS were very helpful and welcoming and they taught me how to study more independently, and I understand the importance of time management, research and report writing. I learned a lot from the mix of cultures and can now even write my name in Chinese! Sunderland has some good places to spend your free time, like the bowling alley, football pitch and cinema, but if I want to go to a bigger city centre I can travel to Newcastle very easily.

“Sunderland is calm and friendly and I found it easy to settle in. The teachers at ONCAMPUS would joke around in class so they were never boring and they used Moodle so that we could review the class notes afterwards. I felt really challenged at ONCAMPUS. I learned how to research properly, how to make my work look professional, how to source. We get homework to help improve our research skills and our knowledge of subjects and then give presentations in class, which made me nervous but improved my courage!”

“My first impression of Sunderland was that the people were friendly and that it was nice and quiet. Good for study, but close enough to Newcastle for a night out. The ONCAMPUS induction week offered lots of activities to help us settle in and see the facilities of the University including CitySpace and the gym for example. Living in Sunderland itself is not too costly and good value for money, and I tend to spend my spare time with friends going out. My time at ONCAMPUS was a really good experience and set me up in a number of ways for progression to the University of Sunderland. Study skills such as research projects I had only done once before, helped show me exactly the sort of detail I should be including.”

"Sunderland is really beautiful, quite good for students as it’s quiet, which means we can focus on our study. The teachers at ONCAMPUS would help us in everything that we needed, personally or academically, and our one-to-one sessions were the opportunity to talk about any specific issues. For me it was really wonderful to make friends with other nationalities, which helped us improve our English as we would speak it every day. I love this city and campus, and the ONCAMPUS teachers were really helpful in improving my English and knowledge for the future."

“There is little distraction in Sunderland, which is good for me. It was easy to settle in, find my way around and make friends with students of different nationalities. My teachers are helpful, open to anything you want to ask. Student Cover

It's essential for international students to take out adequate insurance while studying. ‘Student Cover’ has been created in partnership with Endsleigh, the UK’s largest student insurance provider. With both standard and premium options, ‘Student Cover’ is specifically designed to meet your needs while studying with us – from the time you set off to the moment you arrive back home.

For more information about Student Cover visit www.oncampus.global/insurance

Under 18 Supplement

Under British Law, anyone under 18 is legally classed as a child and such students often have different needs for welfare and support. ONCAMPUS provides a range of extra tailored services covered by the under 18s supplementary fee, which is automatically added to the student’s account. Students have access to experienced welfare personnel who provide both academic and emotional support before and after arrival, as well as an independent guardian from the professionally-accredited College Guardians initiative.

Student Support

We know international students have different needs from those already in the UK, so that’s why we’ve designed a comprehensive student support system that ensures you feel supported every step of the way.

Before you arrive

Once you’ve confirmed your place at ONCAMPUS, we’ll help with a whole host of things such as visas, what to expect on arrival in the UK, insurance and how to get to the centre. We’ll provide information on accommodation, finance and things to bring with you, from essential forms and certificates to advice on extra clothes for winter!

Our fabulous pre-arrival app contains all sorts of useful information for you to download before you arrive at ONCAMPUS.

Induction

The induction week at ONCAMPUS is one of the most important weeks in helping you to settle in. You’ll meet new friends, pick up your timetable, meet your personal tutor and academic teachers, tour the centre and the University and sign up to sports and social activities.

There’s lots to do before your lessons start and alongside the fun things there might also be a little bit of form filling too…

"The student to teacher ratio is really low so teachers get to know us well. It also means we learn everything more easily than in a big class where teachers just teach and you can’t learn about any personal weaknesses or areas you want to improve. It’s really good like that."

You’ll get the opportunity to sign up to sports and social activities during induction

Throughout the year

Our support before you arrive is just the beginning. Not only do you have access to all the standard things you’d expect – your own personal tutor, small tutor groups and our online academic platforms (such as Moodle) – you’ll also find the following:

• Academic support: We’ll make sure you stay on track with your study plan, meeting any targets and setting up additional academic support if you are struggling in any area.

• University integration: To prepare you for a smooth progression to the University of Sunderland, there is plenty of activity to make you feel part of the University from day one. Heads of Faculty presentations and Faculty visits, experience days, campus tours and the ability to join sports and social groups are just a few.

• Monthly activity calendars: We have lots of exciting organised activities, published every month, for you to join in with as little or as much as you like.
